Filmmaker Ram Gopal Varma skips inquiry before Andhra CID

Amaravati, Feb 10 (IANS) Controversial filmmaker Ram Gopal Varma on Monday skipped his appearance before Andhra Pradesh's Crime Investigation Department (CID) for questioning in a case relating to a Telugu movie released in 2019. Varma sent his lawyer to the CID office in Guntur and sought eight weeks time to appear before the CID officials. RGV, as the noted director is popularly known, conveyed to the CID officials that he cannot appear before them as he was busy with film promotion.

The CID is likely to issue a fresh notice to the filmmaker on Tuesday.

The CID had earlier issued a notice to RGV, directing him to appear before it on February 10. He was summoned for questioning in connection with a complaint lodged by a leader of the Telugu Desam Party (TDP) in the past. The case is related to the 2019 movie 'Kamma Rajyamlo Kadapa Reddlu' (Kadapa Reddys under Kamma rule) directed by RGV. The controversial movie featured actors playing roles of then Chief Minister Y. S. Jagan Mohan Reddy, Chandrababu Naidu, Lokesh and Pawan Kalyan.

OUR PRIME MINISTER HAS HIS UNIQUE WAYS TO CELEBRATE A VOTING DAY

ow come Prime Minister Narendra Modi al ways invariably makes a symbolic statement Lon Election Day, doesn't matter where and when the election. Once, he sat in a cave in Kedarnath and meditated with eyes shut to what people thought of the gimmick as long as they saw him though most of his core Hindu vote-bank were willing partners in the "crime" and marked him as a devout Hindu; therefore, deserving their vote. In today's world of the smartphone and social media, pictures and images travel as fast as data moves and Prime Minister Narendra Modi knows this as surely as he must know that such poll-gimmicks give him an advantage over other politicians and political parties. Prime Minister Narendra Modi uses the perks of power to advance his agenda and does so unabashedly. Modi's dip in the 'Sangam' the other day was timed to coincide with the voting in the Delhi Assembly elections and in the Milkipur bypoll. February 5 was chosen for the "Prime Minister's Day out" keeping in mind the voting in Delhi and Milkipur. The camera never left Modi's image out in the cold. All the television channels kept up a commentary, giving a second by second coverage of the Prime Minister approaching the Sangam's dip-spot.

Boat traffic at the stretch of holy waters was severely crippled and on purpose and brought to an abrupt halt, no doubt planned days earlier or overnight. What if an errant 'Nishad boatman' flipped a paddle and it had struck the "PM's Steamer"? It is another matter that the Prime Minister's presence was noticed by over two crore plus devotees craning their necks for a glimpse of the country's topmost VVIP ducking his head in the allegedly most contaminated watery confluence on earth. Prime Minister Narendra Modi is no longer the spritely politician of 2014. Ten years on, he has added several '365' days to his presence on the planet and he can no longer duck heads below underwater. On February 5, the Prime Minister held on to a rope with a hand for support, and not fully submerging. Yep, time takes its toll on even the best. Eyes shut, in the garb of a saffron saint, Prime Minister Modi fell just short of ducking his head in the Ganga-Yamuna-Saraswati tri-point and if voters in Delhi and Milkipur got an inspiration, the Election Commission cannot be bothered with such trivia! People lining up in queues outside polling booths isn't rare in the world's largest democracy. It happens all the time. And everybody is part of this festival. If anything, the poll body should have ascertained and anticipated the Prime Minister's 'dip-date' and scheduled the poll dates accordingly. Prime Minister Narendra Modi cannot be blamed for the constellation of stars aligning and deciding for him and all and sundry which day should be the holy water dip for the VVIP and which day left for the hoi polloi, the 'aam aadmi' and the 'aam aurat'? Guess what, the Milkipur bypoll recorded more than 65% voting. Was it because Prime Minister Modi took the Mahakumbh dip and the Hindus of Milkipur took the hint and voted for the BJP candidate in one mass? There are allegations, yes. The Election Commission should have taken note is a demand. And what's this we are hearing; that Milkipur's Hindu voters were full of remorse and wanted to avenge the Yogi's loss to Awadhesh Prasad and Akhilesh Yadav, the former's cronies even challenging Lord Ram and claiming victory! Now, if the BJP goes on to win the Milkipur bypoll, the credit will go to Prime Minister Modi and the BJP's IT Cell will call it another Prime Ministerial "masterstroke": Yogi Adityanath lost Faizabad; therefore, Ayodhya; therefore, Prime Minister Narendra Modi took the dip at the 'Sangam' on Voting Day and, therefore victory in Milkipur! The last time when the Samajwadi Party won Milkipur, the voting percentage was 60%. This time it's 65%! 'Modi Magic' at work? Milkipur, which is a reserved assembly seat, saw the highest voter participation since the first elections were held in the seat in 1967, when Nehru was Prime Minister. So, Modi beat Nehru and if that isn't beating, what is? There are those who are calling the Milkipur bypoll a grudge fight in Lord Ram's Ayodhya.

Australian researchers produce first kangaroo embryos through IVF ustralian scientists have suc ustralian scientists have suc cessfully produced the first kangaroo embryos through in vitro fertilisation (IVF) in a major breakthrough for conservation efforts. In a study published on Thursday, the team led by researchers from the University of Queensland (UQ) detailed how they produced the eastern gray kangaroo embryos by injecting sperm into a mature egg, a process commonly used in human IVF called intracytoplasmic sperm injection (ICSI). Lead researcher Andres Gambini said that the groundbreaking achievement could support the conservation of Australia's endangered iconic marsupials, including koalas, wombats, possums and Tasmanian devils.

Private varsities bill hits road block in Kerala cabinet, CPI wants more discussion

The Kerala government's proposed Private Uni versities Bill hit a roadblock at the state cabi net meeting on Wednesday with the ruling LDF's second-biggest constituent - the Communist Party of India (CPI) - expressing its strong reservation to the measure. As State Agriculture Minister and senior CPI leader P. Prasad expressed his doubts and the ramifications that will be caused to the present educational system, the Cabinet decided to defer it to hold more discussions on it, as sought by the party. But with the CPI-M-lead Left Democratic Front (LDF) - the highest decision-making body of the Pinarayi Vijayan government - clearing it, the present opposition to it raised by the CPI might be overlooked and it will not be long before the proposed Bill gets cleared by the cabinet. Senior RJD leader Vargheese George said that when this issue came up at the LDF meeting, he spoke for 20 minutes against this Bill as "it is detrimental to our state's education system".

"But, since we are part of the LDF, we raised our concerns and agreed to it," he said. Moreover, on Wednesday, Higher Education Minister R. Bindhu was out of station and was not present in the cabinet meeting. Hence, this will be coming up at the next cabinet meeting and with the LDF already clearing it, it's just a matter of time before the foreign universities set up shop in the state.

Leader of Opposition V.D.Satheesan said they have always vouched for this Bill and before Vijayan sits down to clear it, he should render an apology to former diplomat T.P. Sreenivasan, who was beaten up by the protesting student wing activists of the CPI-M when he was going to attend a meeting here as the Vice-Chairman of the state's higher education body, that was to take up the discussion of the need for private universities in Kerala. "We have always supported this Bill, but Vijayan and his party were all along opposing this. Now that they have decided on it, he should first go and apologise to Sreenivasan," the Congress leader said.

J&K Haq Insaaf Council observers 'Pakistan Doomsday'

&K Haq Insaaf Council (Truth & Justice Council) • on Wednesday observed February 5 as 'Pakistan Doomsday'. Speaking to reporters in Jammu, the organisation's Chairman Advocate Zeshan said that the J&K Haq Insaaf Council (Truth & amp; Justice Council) has designated February 5 as 'Pakistan Doomsday.' "The development happening in Jammu and Kashmir is something we want to showcase to the people living in Pakistan and in Pakistan-oc-

(PoJK). Our Indian government has ensured the security of PoJK as well," he claimed.

He added that Pakistan, on the other hand, goes to the international stage seeking aid money, but instead of using those funds for the welfare of its common people, it spends them on buying weapons.

"You can see how launching pads have been set up inside PoJK, and how ISI is funding various sources to destabilise Jammu and Kashmir. While a train has now reached Kashmir from Delhi, Pakistan still lacks even basic infrastructure for cupied Jammu and Kashmir transportation," he claimed.

The advocate further added: "I want to ask the people of our neighbouring country, don't you want better education, healthcare, and, most importantly, the freedom to speak? Turkish experts urge developing countries to prioritise agriculture for food security

Istanbul, Feb 10 (IANS) : Agricultural experts in Turkey said that developing countries must prioritise agriculture to ensure national security and food sustainability through robust farmer support.

Halim Orta, an academic at Tekirdag Namik Kemal University and a wheat farmer in Turkey's Thrace region, noted that nations with favourable climates can achieve food self-sufficiency if governments invest in long-term strategies.

Turkey, for example, can leverage its unique geography not only to meet its own food requirements but also to grow exclusive crops like Malatya apricots and Antalya citrus, reducing import dependence and enhancing food security, said Orta.

Orta emphasised that lowering production costs, implementing long-term policies and providing subsidies are essential for ensuring sustainable, affordable food access, reports Xinhua news agency. Murat Kapikiran, head of the Istanbul Chamber of Agricultural Engineers, stressed the need for developing countries, including Turkey, to protect farmers' motivation and resilience against market risks. He warned that cur-

Chorus grows for UCC in Uttar Pradesh, Minister and MPs from the state rally support

With Gujarat government forming a committee to study the modalities for drafting and implementing a law on the Uniform Civil Code (UCC), many Parliamentarians from Uttar Pradesh have welcomed the move and are also rallying support for a similar legislation in their state.

SP Singh Baghel, the Union Minister of State (MoS), representing Agra LS constituency, has emerged as the leading face to offer support to the law.

"This was in our manifesto, so it was implemented. Everything else in the manifesto will also be implemented. The country cannot run on

New Delhi, Feb 10 (IANS): tribal customs, it will function only according to the Constitution and the laws enacted by Parliament. A truly equal society will be achieved only when the UCC is implemented," the Union Minister emphasized.

> Many BJP MPs from the state made similar assertions on the law, that has evoked fierce resistance from the Opposition parties, with the latter accusing the Centre and BJP-ruled states of bulldozing the rights of minorities with such legislations.

BJP MP Rajkumar Chahar expressed confidence that Uttar Pradesh would soon follow Gujarat's lead.

"UCC will come in UP also. The states being ruled by nationalist and patriotic parties, which are working to fulfil the Prime Minister's resolution of Viksit Bharat, will implement it," he told IANS.

Backing the call for UCC, BJP MP Dinesh Sharma and former UP CM told IANS, "This is a good start, and it will be better for states to adopt it as soon as possible." Many UP lawmakers argued that a uniform legal framework is essential for creating a "truly equal society."

Echoing the sentiment, UP BJP MP Asim Arun pointed out that the concept of a Uniform Civil Code was envisioned by B. R. Ambedkar and is also enshrined in the Constitution. "Baba Saheb Ambedkar gave this instruction; it is not just in the resolution of BJP but also in the Constitution. The previous party saw it as appeasement and thought it would cause harm," he told IANS. "Everyone should have equal rights, whether male or female. I thank Uttarakhand's double-engine government for taking the first step forward. The UP government is also planning on this," he added.

Ethiopia, Kenya launch joint operation to dismantle terror activities along border

Addis Ababa, Feb 10 (IANS) : Ethiopian and Kenyan intelligence agencies have launched a joint military operation aimed at dismantling a militant group along their common border areas, Ethiopia's National Intelligence and Security Service (NISS) has said in a statement.

The primary objective of the joint operation is to dismantle 'Shene', also known as the Oromo Liberation Army, a militant group designated as a terrorist organisation by the Ethiopian government, thereby enhancing regional stability along the border, the statement said.

Specifically, the operation aims to counter activities related to terrorism, contraband trade and the trafficking of people and arms.

The statement further noted that the operation seeks to implement security agreements focused on combating threats that jeopardise the national interests of both nations.

NISS said joint security forces from Ethiopia and Kenya are actively conducting operations in designated camps of the group within their respective border territories to neutralise its influence and promote peace in the Horn of Africa region, Xinhua news agency reported.

Kenya's National Police Service said the operations target criminals engaged in illegal activities such as arms, drug and human trafficking, illegal mining, instigating tribal conflicts, and kidnapping for ransom along the two nations' border. Last week, experts met in the Kenyan capital of Nairobi to promote peace in the Horn of Africa region. The two-day Regional Validation Forum for the Horn of Africa Initiative's Peace and Social Cohesion White Paper brought together more than 100 delegates, including security officials from Kenya, Djibouti, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Somalia, South Sudan, and Sudan, as well as officials from international development agencies, to exchange knowledge and strategies for strengthening peacebuilding.

In his opening remarks, Raymond Omollo, Principal Secretary in the Kenyan Ministry of Interior and National Administration, said the forum presents a significant opportunity to reinforce the collective commitment to peaceful and accelerated development as well as social cohesion in the Horn of Africa region.

He noted that the region has made a collective resolve to improve the lives of the communities in the borderlands through peace, investment, and development because it has long faced insecurity, marginalisation, conflict, fragility, and underdevelopment.

He also criticised the implementation of the Pradhan Mantri Matsya Sampada Yojana (PMMSY) in Tamil Nadu, arguing that it has "failed" to provide "sufficient support" to the fishing community. "The scheme's implementation in the state has been ineffective, leaving the community without adequate financial aid, technology, and infrastructure development," he added.

An estimated 6.3 billion US dollars is required annually to closer to eliminating the mosquito-transmitted disease by 2030, noted the officials and experts at the forum. Christopher Getonga, Chairman of the End Malaria Council Kenya, acknowledged Africa's high malaria burden, which has exerted pressure on public coffers and hampered economic growth.

New task force to combat violent youth crime in South Australia

Canberra, Feb 10 (IANS) : Police in South Australia (SA) have established a new task force to combat violent crimes committed by youth gangs. SA Police announced the new Youth and Street Gangs Task Force on Monday as part of a boost to police resources allocated to investigating youth crime, domestic and family violence, cybercrime and retail theft.

Commissioner Grant Stevens said that the new task force would respond to crimes as well as undertake preventive and rehabilitative work. "Youth crime is not just about the criminality, but the recruitment of younger members, so the task force provides an opportunity to break this cycle," he said in a statement. "This permanent task force will disrupt and reduce the criminal activities of a target group of offenders, particularly focusing on crimes of violence that pose a significant risk to community safety." The task force has been formed by merging two existing police operations and adding 13 police officers to its ranks.

SA Police data released earlier in January revealed that the number of crimes committed by offenders aged 10-17 rose by 140 per cent from 6,938 in 2018-19 to 16,710 in 2023-24.

Responding to the data at the time, Acting Assistant Commissioner John De Candia said that police were observing high rates of re-offending within youth crime. He said that 10 per cent of youth offenders accounted for about 50 per cent of the crimes committed, Xinhua news agency reported. The task force is part of an initiative redirecting more than 70 police officers to frontline areas.

An additional nine police officers will be assigned to investigate financial and cybercrime under the shake-up while an additional 13 will join family and domestic violence investigations.

White House dials down Trump's plan to 'take over' Gaza

Washington, Feb 10 (IANS) : The White House said on Monday that President Donald Trump had not committed any funds for his proposal for the US to take over Gaza or deploy troops there for that purpose. Senior officials of the Trump administration also sought to make clear President Trump was not talking about indefinitely occupying Gaza as he seemed to have suggested in a news conference on Tuesday alongside visiting Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

"The President has not committed to putting boots on the ground in Gaza," White House Press Secretary Karoline Leavitt said at the daily briefing. "He has also said that the United States is not going to pay for the rebuilding of Gaza. His administration is going to work with our partners in the region to reconstruct this region." Leavitt went on to describe the proposal as an "out-of-box idea" characteristic of the President whose goal was to bring "lasting peace" in West Asia. Asked if Leavitt was rolling back Trump's willingness to send American troops to Gaza to implement his plan.

New Delhi, Feb 10 (IANS) : A large group of protesters on Monday vandalised and set on fire Bangladesh founder Sheikh Mujibur Rahman's residence in Dhaka during a live online address of his daughter and former Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina. The angry mob vandalised the memorial and residence of Sheikh Hasina's father located at Dhanmondi 32 in Bangladesh demanding a ban on the party he founded, Awami League, on Monday evening. The attackers forcibly entered the premises after breaking open the gate and began a destructive rampage. The demonstrators were seen destroying the structure by climbing up. They also set ablaze the top floor of the building. Hasina delivered her address organised by the Awami League's now-disbanded student wing Chhatra League and called upon the countrymen to organise a resistance against the current regime.

US federal judge indefinitely blocks Trump's order ending birthright citizenship

Washington, Feb 10 (IANS) : A federal judge in Maryland has indefinitely blocked US President Donald Trump's executive order to end birthright citizenship for undocumented immigrants and foreign visitors with temporary visas.

Judge Deborah L. Boardman from the United States District Court for the District of Maryland on Monday issued a preliminary injunction after a court hearing in Greenbelt, Maryland, in a case filed by civil rights groups seeking to block Trump's order.

The injunction applies nationally, Xinhua news agency reported. "The Maryland lawsuit is one of at least six different federal cases brought against Trump's order by a total of 22 Democraticled states and more than half a dozen civil rights groups," according to The Washington Post.

Trump signed the order hours after taking office on January 20. It directed federal agencies to halt recognition of citizenship for children born after February 19, if neither parent is a US citizen nor a permanent resident.

More than 20 states and civil rights groups immediately filed lawsuits challenging the order, calling it blatantly "unconstitutional".

On January 23, Senior US District Judge John Coughenour, a federal judge in Seattle, Washington state, temporarily blocked Trump's executive order for at least 14 days, as lawsuits in Washington state and elsewhere over Trump's action proceeded.

The 14th Amendment states that "all persons born or naturalised in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States".

Trump's executive order argued that the 14th Amendment "has always" excluded from birthright citizenship persons who were born in the United States but not "subject to the jurisdiction thereof".

The committee did not rule out the possibility of a stronger earthquake occurring in the near future, echoing warnings from several Greek seismologists over the past week. Santorini is home to approximately 20,000 permanent residents, with around 5,000 tourists visiting during this period, a small fraction of the three million tourists who choose Santorini annually. Greek authorities, who estimated that roughly 11,000 people have departed Santorini since seismic activity intensified over the past week, have dispatched experts and emergency teams to Santorini, Amorgos, and nearby islands. Tents have been set up in sports centres, and residents have been advised to take precautionary measures, avoid derelict buildings, cliffs, and shorelines, and refrain from indoor gatherings until further notice.

However, experts remain calm, emphasising that Santorini is capable of withstanding such quakes. They reiterated that the ongoing seismic activity is tectonic in nature, not volcanic. Santorini is part of the Hellenic Volcanic Arc, an active volcanic zone.

French PM survives 2 no-confidence votes in a day

Paris, Feb 10 (IANS) : French Prime Minister Francois Bayrou survived a second no-confidence vote, launched by the hard leftwing party La France Insoumise (LFI). Only 122 French deputies voted in favour of the motion, falling well short of the 289 votes needed to oust Bayrou, Yael Braun-Pivet, Speaker of the French National Assembly, announced on Monday evening. Earlier in the day, Bayrou had already survived a separate no-confidence vote, Xinhua news agency reported. According to results announced by Braun-Pivet, only 128 deputies backed the motion.

LFI initiated two no-confidence motions against Bayrou after he invoked Article 49.3 of the French Constitution on Monday to push through France's 2025 state budget bill and the first part of the Social Security financing bill without a parliamentary vote. Without support from the farright National Rally (RN) and its left-wing ally, the Socialist Party (PS), LFI failed to secure enough votes to unseat Bayrou in both attempts.

French President Emmanuel Macron appointed Bayrou as Prime Minister on December 13 after Michel Barnier was ousted in a no-confidence vote.

The survival of Bayrou's government will be a relief for Macron who has faced calls to resign since the middle of last year but insisted he will stay on until the end of his term, due to end in 2027. Many analysts and even allies are still baffled by the President's decision to call snap parliamentary elections last summer which gave the far right its biggest-ever foothold in a divided Parliament.

He called the UNHRC to have "traditionally protected human rights abusers by allowing them to hide from scrutiny, and instead obsessively demonises the one democracy in the Middle East -Israel.

> This body has focused on attacking a democratic country and propagating anti-semitism, instead of promoting human rights."

> "The discrimination against us is clear: In the UNHRC, Israel is the only country with an agenda item dedicated solely to it. Israel has been subjected to over 100 condemnatory resolutions, over 20 per cent of all resolutions ever passed in the Council - more than against Iran, Cuba, North Korea, and Venezuela combined. Israel will not accept this discrimination any longer!" he added.

The announcement from the Israeli Foreign Minister came amid Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's visit to the US.

US President Trump announced America's departure from the "anti-semitic" UN Human Rights Council and the UN Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA), which drew a lot of flak over the allegations of links with Hamas.

Trump made the announcement during a joint press conference with Israeli PM Netanyahu in Washington, DC on Tuesday (local time).

"I'm also pleased to announce that this afternoon the United States withdrew from the anti-semitic UN Human Rights Council and ended all of the support for the UN Relief and Works Agency, which funnelled money to Hamas and which was very disloyal to humanity. Today I also took action to restore our maximum pressure policy on the Iranian regime. And we will once again enforce the most aggressive possible sanctions.
